

Zagadnienia Biofizyki Współczesnej tom 3, 1978, 149-156

Studies on associative equilibria in the ground state by fluorescence quenching

Andrzej Bierzyński

A simple method, based on excimer formation, is described and applied to a study of the formation of associates of purine and pyrimidine bases in aqueous solution